Planting the Seeds

Whether we are ready or not, the new school year is upon us! I hope you are feeling more prepared than I am. But I must say I am VERY excited about our homeschool group this year and the added opportunities for activities and involvement!

The purpose of this newsletter is simply to serve as a reminder of special events within our group and to give any details concerning them. It will be sent out the first of every month. I hope it will be a help to all of us.

If you want to look at events beyond the next two months, you can refer to our Yahoo group.

For those of us who are not tech-savvy: Once you have accepted the invitation to join the BTHE yahoo group, you may go to your Yahoo home page and look for "Groups" next to "Mail," "Sports," etc. Click on "Groups" and then on "BTHE group." From there you should be able to access messages as well as view the calendar under "More" and then "events." If you have questions about the page, you can contact Miriam Barlow at mbarlow715@yahoo.com.

I trust this year will be a great success for us all!

What You Need to Know

We don't have many events in August but just getting started is a lot, don't you think? ☺

BTHE class details:

As classes start on August 22, please be prepared to pay your co-op teacher for the semester unless you have worked out a payment plan with that teacher. If you have any additional questions, please contact Alicia Estes.

Southeastway Park details:

Amy O'Donnell is organizing a relaxed gathering for anyone able to come at Southeastway Park (5624 S. Carroll Rd., Indianapolis, IN 46204) on August 26th at 1p.m. Amy will send a message through our Yahoo group if there are to be any last-minute changes. Please join Amy if you can! It would be a great way for our children to spend time together in a fun and relaxed environment.

Ideas:

We still do not have much going on in September, and there were many great ideas mentioned at our first mom's night. If you were thinking of an extra activity you would like to organize, now is your chance!

Alicia is also still looking for some ideas for themes for our mom's nights scheduled throughout the year. These nights are a great way to connect with each other, ask questions, and gain information. I hope you will do your best to come!

If you are organizing any events, please send the information to Sarah Gray at gray23@att.net to be included in the newsletter or have suggestions as to how this newsletter could be better, please let me know!
