Mom's Night

Amy O'Donnell is graciously hosting our next Mom's night November 8th, at 7p.m. Amy's address is 6747 W. Brier Creek Dr., New Palestine, 46163.

The topics include Transcripts 102, college prep, academic honors, teaching methods for Pre-K, early elementary, and elementary and combined teaching presented by Christy Franco. Last month's Transcripts 101 was of great interest and proved very insightful. I know many of you are looking forward to learning more!

Thank you for all who have offered to bring food! Those who volunteered to bring snacks for November's Mom's Night are: Missy Baumgartner, Jennifer Aldridge, and Brandy Gray.

A Look Ahead

State Police Museum details:

First, it's free! How awesome is that? They will give a short tour and have a short video. If you choose, they can also fingerprint your children. Different police cars, equipment, and uniforms are on display with one that the kids can get in and turn the lights on. They also have a gift shop.

Elizabeth Poteet is arranging this trip on November 3rd at 8660 East 21st Street, Indianapolis, 46219. Elizabeth will let us know about the

Tuttle Orchards Tour

Our morning at Tuttle Orchards should be great fun! Please try to arrive between 9 and 9:10 a.m. to ensure we start on time. The address is 5717 N. 300 W., Greenfield 46140.

Because they want one person to pay for the whole group, please try to bring cash if you have not yet paid. The cost is $8 per person. Tuttle does not recommend you bring a wagon for your little ones because of uneven ground and going over hoses, but it is not prohibited.

You can also bring a sack lunch. The tour will be over around 11:30, and we will have the picnic area for one hour after that. Your children can also continue to play in the farm play area or Agrimize.

Talent Night

Talent Night will be held in the main auditorium of BTBC on October 25th at 7p.m. Your children will have the valuable experience of performing in front of a group! A few options might be playing an instrument, singing, quoting poetry or other dramatic selections, and more! If your child intends to participate, please email Mary Hill at jmhill2004@juno.com with your child's name, category or performance (piano, poem, etc.), and title of the piece. We also look forward to the art pieces from the co-op class being displayed!

exact time. She needs an approximate number a few weeks before so please email her at lizzys79@hotmail.com if you plan to go or have any questions.

Follow the North Star: Alicia is really encouraging all 9th-12th grade students to take advantage of this amazing experience! Any parents are welcome! However, she does need a firm number to give them and payment 3 weeks in advance. The date is now November 17th, from 11-1:30, and the cost is $9.50 per student or adult.

Please email Alicia right away at Angelbeads1@gmail.com if you are coming. Alicia will then send an email to those going with detailed information and instructions.

Drama Camp Auditions: Auditions are November 17th from 3-4:30p.m. at Burge. Drama Camp is always a major highlight of the year. You won't want to miss it!
